

Team Name: _____

Words

What are the meanings of the following words? Select the correct option from those given.

1. What is a collop, is it..?

A - A large dollop of a substance, such as cream

B - A term for ham and eggs

C - A fatty tissue growth often treated by vets

2. What is dactylonomy, is it..?

A - The art of counting on fingers, often including knuckles, joints and bones

B - The study of patterns in fingerprints

C - Making decorative shapes with the use of dials, such as in a Spirograph

3. What is a jackalope, is it..?

A - A mythical beast

B - A cross between a jackal and an antelope

C - A specific type of envelope, using a mechanical seal

4. What is a williwaw, is it..?

A - A old English term for a pot belly

B - A type of oven glove with woollen padding

C - A sudden blast of wind from a mountainous area

5. If you were to tripudiate, what would you be doing?

A - Dancing

B - Arguing

C - Trying to be better than someone else

6. What is a lipogrammatist?

A - Someone who calculates exactly what proportion of body fat is safe to extract during liposuction

B - Someone who writes poems using 25 of the alphabet's 26 letters

C - A mathematician involved in the calculation of BMI (Body Mass Index)

7. If something is described as badious, is it ..?

A - Chestnut-coloured

B - Able to be submersed in water

C - With the capability to act in a sly or evil manner

8. What is a gablock?

A - A large block used as a step to reach the shutters in Elizabethan houses

B - A spur attached to the heel of a gamecock

C - A simple locking device, the precursor of the padlock

9. If someone is described as mabsoot, are they ..?

A - Sullen

B - Sly

C - Happy

10. What is thalposis? Is it..?

A - A sensation of warmth

B - The study of heatwaves

C - An ancient disease with similar symptoms to smallpox
