

Words

What is the proper definition of the word?

1. What is an agelast, is it...?

A - A person who never laughs

B - A wise Indian man

C - A person who appears to age more slowly than normal expectations

2. If someone is ventripotent, are they...?

A - Able to walk on a tightrope

B - Very gluttonous or have a large stomach

C - Scared of the open air

3. What is quiddany, is it...?

A - A jelly or syrup made from fruit

B - The desire to make more and more money

C - An ancient sport similar to polo

4. What is terrazzo, is it...?

A - A type of earthenware pot

B - A style of painting with interlocking geometric shapes

C - A type of flooring

5. What is xerophagy, is it...?

A - An x-ray process, whereby the camera must be partially inserted

B - A strict Christian fast, when only dry food (usually bread) may be eaten

C - The study of mathematical graphs

6. If something is cariogenic, does it...?

A - Provide calcium

B - Have many circles within

C - Cause tooth decay

7. What is a yakow, is it...?

A - A cross between a yak and a cow

B - A rare type of bird related to the kestrel

C - A writing style originating from central Europe

8. What is a yad, is it...?

A - A pointer used by a reader of the Torah to follow text

B - An Old English word for a rogue

C - A small rodent, similar to a gerbil but native to Australasia

9. What is narcolepsy, is it...?

A - A brain disorder causing sufferers to fall asleep and/or feel excessively drowsy

B - A foot disorder where sufferers often cannot feel their feet

C - A disorder whereby sufferers cannot tell the difference between day and night

10. If someone is palamate, are they...?

A - Literate (another word for the same meaning)

B - Able to read palms

C - web-footed