

Words

Which is the correct definition?

1. What is hagiology, is it..?

- A – The study of saints
  - B – The study of witches
  - C – A system used when determining the physical strength of animals
-

2. If something is napiform, is it..?

- A – Shaped like a nappy
  - B – Able to fit inside a circle
  - C – Shaped like a turnip
-

3. What is qigong, is it..?

- A – A name for an acupuncturist's needle
  - B – A type of Chinese meditational exercise
  - C – An ancient type of spear
-

4. If someone is ulotrichous, do they...?

- A – Have woolly or very curly hair
  - B – Know how to unicycle
  - C – Often bother neighbours
-

5. What is abasia, is it..?

- A – A rudimentary knowledge of mathematics
  - B – The inability to walk due to lack of muscular coordination
  - C – A patronising tone of voice
-

6. If something is ramiferous, does it..?

- A – Have branches
  - B – Eat sheep
  - C – Get ravenously hungry with ease
-

7. What are lamboys, are they...?

- A – The children of shepherds
  - B – Platelets inserted into fingers in order to strengthen them after injury
  - C – Armour in the shape of a skirt, made from metal strips
-

8. What is a gabelle, is it..?

- A – A tax, originating from a tax on salt in France
  - B – A small button, such as those used to hold epaulettes
  - C – A small reindeer-like creature
-

9. If something is tabescent, is it..?

- A – Wasting away, shrivelling
  - B – With an orange hue
  - C – Lumpy
-

10. What does an opisometer measure?

- A – The potency of drugs
  - B – The distance an individual can see
  - C – The length of curved lines
-